------------------	--------------	------	----------------------------------	----

Signs as witness the charter whereby Andrew, epis.M, gifts the church of Abertarff to Beaully Priory.
{Firth's Fasti shows the date of this Charter to be c.1230 (1232 at the latest) NOT 1242 as Batten says - see notes in my copy of the book.}
POMS Dates this charter to 1227.

David	Pety, de	Vicar	1431	Scottish Supplications to Rome 1428-1432	181
30 April, 1431  Reformatio  Formerly Pope granted provision to David de Pety, vicar of Pety and Brachelyn, Moray diocese, B.Dec., of rectory of church of St Moldulf, Argyll diocese, of which the cure is exercised by a vicar. But by signature of supplication (Fiat ut petitur. G. ut petitur) the dispensation that David might hold the rectory along with vicarage for life was not granted owing to rules and restrictions of Chancery. But fruits of vicarage (£6 sterling) and of rectory, also of lay patronage (£8 sterling), are so scanty in these days on account of hardships or of wars that for three years they scarcely amounted to £8 sterling, and the vicar is bound to afford hospitality to all comers according to custom of country, to pay episcopal dues and support other burdens, so that from the remainder of fruits he cannot be suitably sustained. David who is in Curia and has sustained great labours and expenses, supplicates that Pope would give mandate to expedite letters with dispensation to hold vicarage and rectory together for life with clause of exchange.  Fiat ut petitur et dispensamus. G.  Rome, St Peter's, Prid. Kal. May, anno 1.

David Pety, de	Vicar	1431	Scottish Supplications to Rome 1428-1432	178

17 April, 1431

David de Pety, priest, Moray diocese, B.Dec., vicar of annexed churches of Pety and Brachlyn [Moray diocese], represents that canonry and prebend of Logymecht in church of Ross, which at present Richard Stag, clerk, has occupied for a year and more by ordinary authority, is void in as much as Thomas de Urqward, now married, held it for some years, and John de Montealto for some time after him, against a statute published by church of Ross and approved by Apostolic See, forbidding that anyone should be admitted to any prebend if he were not in holy orders or at least had himself promoted within a year to holy orders, the said Thomas holding for more than five years but John for his whole life time without being promoted, and now said Richard has held it for a year and more without being promoted. David supplicates that Pope would provide him to said canonry and prebend (£10 sterling), notwithstanding that he holds canonry and prebend of Kylmychel in said church (£6 sterling), anent which he is litigating in Apostolic Palace, which he offers to demit after peaceable assecution of foresaid canonry and prebend of Logymecheli.
 Concessum ut petitur. B.Graden.

David Pety, de	Vicar	1431	Scottish Supplications to Rome 1428-1432	166
15 March, 1431            Since rectory of St Medulph, Argyll diocese, of lay patronage, is void because Colin Macheachyerna who obtained collation possessed it peaceably for a year and more without having himself promoted to priesthood (there being no legitimate impediment), and, after the lapse of the above year, has detained it for almost three years without canonical title. Therefore David de Pety, vicar of united parish churches of Pety and Brachelyn, Moray diocese, B.Dec., present in Curia, supplicates that Pope would provide him to said rectory with dependencies (12 marks sterling), void as above or by non-promotion of Angus Donaldi, formerly rector, to priesthood within statutory time, or by his promotion to church of Sodor and his consecration, or void by death of John Martrachna, formerly claiming right in said rectory, or howsoever void, even if there be a suit thereanent between John and Colin and certain others: notwithstanding that David holds above vicarage of united churches and canonry and prebend of Kylmiel in church of Ross, anent which he is litigating in Apostolic Palace (£15 sterling): dispensing him that he may hold said vicarage [sic], and another rectory or parish church for life with clause of exchange: notwithstanding that in foresaid church of St Medulph a perpetual vicar is instituted by ordinary authority to minister 'in divinis'.            Fiat ut petitur. G.            Rome, S. Apostoli, Id. Mar., anno 1.
