John Bourgy	Canon	1424	Scottish Supplications to Rome 1423-1428	75
14 November, 1424 Nova provisio On the voidance of the canonry and prebendary vicarage of Elgyne in the Church of Moray by the death outwith the Roman Court of John Bourgy, last canon prebendary, Andrew de Hawyk, Lic.Dec., accepted the same by an Expectative Grace within the lawful time and had himself provided; nevertheless he doubts the validity of his acceptance, provision and the consequences and therefore supplicates that the Pope would provide him anew to the said canonry and prebend (40 marks sterling), whether void as above or howsoever: notwithstanding the parish church of Lyston, St Andrews diocese (100 marks sterling), which he holds, and the canonry and prebend of Kyncaudyn in the Church of Aberdeen (£120 sterling), anent which he is litigating in the Apostolic Palace of Causes and which he does not yet possess. Concessum up petitur. Rome, S. Maria Maggiore. 8 Kal. Dec., anno 8.
